

Research Handbook on Brand Co-Creation

Table of Content

PART I THE ONTOLOGY AND EPISTEMOLOGY OF BRAND CO-CREATION

1 A conceptual analysis of labels referring to brand co-creation

Jaana Tähtinen and Kati Suomi

2 Establishing the boundaries of brand co-creation

Catherine da Silveira and Cláudia Simões

3 Brands as co-creational lived experience ecosystems: an integrative theoretical framework of interactional creation

Venkat Ramaswamy and Kerimcan Ozcan

4 Reassessing brand co-creation: towards a critical performativity approach

Andrea Lucarelli, Cecilia Cassinger and Jacob Östberg

PART II CO-CREATION OF INTANGIBLE BRAND ASSETS

5 Co-creation of intangible brand assets: an integrative S-D logic/organic view of brand-based conceptual framework

Victor Saha, Venkatesh Mani, Praveen Goyal and Linda D. Hollebeek

6 Co-creation or co-destruction? Value-based brand formation

Andrea Hemetsberger, Maria Kreuzer and Hans Mühlbacher

7 Dealing with discrepancies of a brand in change: recomposition of value and meanings in the network

Anu Norrgrann and Salla Saraniemi

8 The role of brand-facing actors in shaping institutions through brand meaning co-creation

Kieran D. Tierney, Ingo O. Karpen and Kate Westberg

9 Co-creation of multi-sensory brand experiences: a manufacturer perspective

Clarinda Rodrigues, Andreas Aldogan Eklund, Adele Berndt and Susanne Sandberg

10 B2B branding in global commodity networks: a cultural branding analysis of a Danish company going global

Christian Dam and Dannie Kjeldgaard

PART III CO-CREATION OF BRAND OFFERINGS

11 Freedom and control in brand co-creation communities

Nicholas Ind and Oriol Iglesias

12 Exploring the brand co-creation–brand performance linkage and the roles of innovation and firm age: resource-based and dynamic capabilities views

Ahmed Rageh Ismail

13 Toward a co-creation approach to nation branding: an integrative framework

Mai T. Pham and Roderick J. Brodie

14 The dark side of brand co-creation: a psychological ownership perspective

Fabian Bartsch and Bart Claus

PART IV ETHICAL IMPLICATIONS OF BRAND CO-CREATION

15 The universal moral standards and the ethics of co-creation

Sumire Stanislawski

16 Co-creation of conscientious corporate brands – facilitating societal change towards sustainability: a structured literature analysis

Christine Vallaster and Philip Lechner

17 Organizational citizenship behaviour principles: a guide for employees and customers in the brand value co-creation journey

Maja Arslanagić-Kalajdžić and Vesna Babić-Hodović

18 “We look within... So we can look up” – towards a nonviolent ethics of human brand co-creation

Monica Porzionato and Cecilia Cassinger

19 The ethics of conspicuous virtue signaling: when brand co-creation on social media turns negative

Ulf Aagerup

PART V CRITICAL REFLECTIONS ON THE FUTURE OF BRAND CO-CREATION

20 Brand co-creation and degrowth: merging the odd couple

Feyza Aǧlargož

21 Brand co-creation management in the light of the social-materiality approach

Géraldine Michel and Valérie Zeitoun

22 Violent brands: from neoliberal vessels to far-right fantasies
Sofia Ulver

PART VI CASE STUDIES ON BRAND CO-CREATION

23 Alternative methods to study affective information processing in brand co-creation
Monika Koller and Peter Walla

24 Prolonging the shared project value of surplus co-creation
Yun Mi Antorini and Gry Høngsmark Knudsen

25 The iconization of Greta Thunberg: the role of myths in co-creating a person brand
Teresa Brugger and Verena E. Wieser

26 Finding new product ideas at Eisenbeiss: integrating non-frontline employees into co-creation processes
Oliver Koll

27 Turning lead into gold: from weighty consumer feedback to co-creation
Peter Espersen